AMEND Senate Bill No. 1452

House Bill No. 1433*

by inserting the following new section immediately preceding the last section and renumbering the subsequent section accordingly:

SECTION _____. All individuals who are subject to this act shall be entitled to reimbursement for credit monitoring services for a two-year period beginning with the day on which they file a petition for offices described in § 8-50-501(a)(1), (4), (7), (9), and (19), or, if appointed, from the day on which they assume office. The bureau of ethics and campaign finance shall provide reimbursement, up to two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per individual per year, to all individuals who are subject to this act whether or not those individuals elect to disclose their credit scores. The bureau may promulgate rules necessary to administer the reimbursement program
